INTRODUCTION
AND GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY, publishers of Southeastern Directories, presents to subscribers and the general public, this, the latest edition of Winston-Salem City Directory. (In all, the HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,300 city and suburban Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Winston-Salem's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Winston-Salem to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL's Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional people and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Winston-Salem City Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department, grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business Section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the city, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings-a catalog of all the activities of the city. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a busy and diversified city like Winston-Salem, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents, business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This Directory aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Winston-Salem, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section, the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner-occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers, new householder symbols and Zip Codes.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site, and as an educational center. The publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Winston-Salem.

The Winston-Salem Out-Of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Winston-Salem City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of many Directory Libraries installed in cities and towns throughout the United States and Canada through the courtesy of your publisher.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional people who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

History

Rich and varied is the history of Winston-Salem, for the city of today is the product of two centuries of constructive, planned growth.

In 1752-53, a small group of Pennsylvania Moravians, a Protestant denomination of Bohemian origin, carefully selected and bought a large tract of land in Piedmont Carolina at the three forks of the Yadkin River. They named the tract "Wachovia" after the Austrian estates of County Nicholas Louis Von Zinzendorf, an early protector-patron of the sect. Two settlements were established,, Bethabara in 1753, and Bethania in 1759. In 1766, a new settlement was carefully laid out in the center of the Wachovia tract and built according to definite plans. The tranquility-loving Moravians named their new town Salem, meaning "peace".

The small town grew rapidly under the care of the industrious fathers. A water system was established and dwellings, stores and shops built. Tobacco was even then an important crop. The fathers consecrated a graveyard, "God's Acre," and founded a girls' school which was developed into the Salem Academy and College of today.

The Revolutionary War brought to the thriving town Nathanael Green's war until the middle of the 19th Century were marked by such events as the establishment of the Nissen Wagon Co. in 1787; a visit from George Washington in 1791; the dedication of the Home Moravian Church in 1800; the first edition of Blum's Almanac in 1828, and the opening of the first bank in 1847. Cotton and wool manufacturing companies had been organized, and Salem by 1850 was a prosperous center of religion, learning and industry.

By an act of legislature in 1849, Forsyth County was created from Stokes County. The county seat was established one mile north of Salem Square. In 1851, again by act of Legislature, the new county seat was named "Winston" in hon or of Major Joseph Winston, Revolutionary War hero. Salem was incorporated in 1766; Winston in 1849.

Winston developed rapidly as an industrial center and market. The year 1872 saw the first tobacco auction and the opening of the first tobacco factory. In 1885, the Chamber Of Commerce of Winston and Salem was organized by far-sighted leaders who realized that together the two towns must build for the future. By the time of consolidation, Winston was already known for its textiles, hosiery, blankets, knit goods, tobacco products and tobacco market.

In 1913, by popular vote, Winston and Salem were consolidated as Winston-Salem, the "Twin City." The new city took as its motto "Urbs Condita Adiuvando," meaning "A City Founded Upon Co-operation." This motto puts into modern phraseology the old Moravian concept of "Unitas Fratrum," "A Unity of Brethren."

Winston-Salem today is the leading industrial city of North Carolina and one of the South's leading industrial cities. The value of manufactured shipments for Forsyth County totaled 3.8 billion for 1979.

The best of the old and the best of the new blend to make a progressive city still marked by a deep religious atmosphere, a love for music and arts, and a zeal for broad educational development. As did their fathers of yesterday, far-sighted citizens of today build always for the greater city of tomorrow.

Old Salem, Inc., 600 S. Main St., is headquarters for the restoration of the quaint Moravian village, founded in 1766. Here may be seen a scale model of the village as it looked in the early days, and current exhibits.

Wachovia Museum, corner S. Main and Academy Streets, has on display a large collection of Salem Antiquities and objects belonging to early Winston. A part of the collection is housed in the old Boy's School, built in 1794 and restored in 1954. Boys' School is still under its original tile roof.

Salem Tavern, 800 S. Main St., erected in 1784, was the first brick building in Salem. George Washington visited the Tavern in 1791 during his Southern Tour. As a house museum, it now offers visitors a glimpse into one of the South's best known 18th century inns.

Lick-Boner House, 512 S. Liberty St., 1787, was the first project of the eleven completed Old Salem restorations in a long-range program. John Henry Boner, the North Carolina poet, was born in the house in 1845.

Home Moravian Church, S. Church St., erected in 1800, was the heart of the early Salem community, and is the center of the Moravian Church activities in the South. It is here that the opening scene of the Moravian early Easter morning service is held. This Easter Service, one of the most widely known religious services in America, has been held for 204 years, and attracts from 30 to 40 thousand visitors annually.

"God's Acre," or Moravian Graveyard, S. Church St., contains more than 3,000 graves, all having similar, flat markers to symbolize the brotherhood and equality of man. There are no family plots. The graveyard has been used by Moravian congregations in the city since 1771, and is the closing scene of the Moravian Easter Service, which attracts thousands of visitors from across the country.

Single Brother's Home, 600 South Main St., 1769 and 1786, is the second oldest house still standing in Salem. It was here that the young boys of the community went to learn their trades. The building is now the Moravian Church H ome.

Sister's House, Salem Square, 1786, housed the single sisters of early Salem. The house is know used as a dormitory for Salem College.

John Vogler House, 700 S. Main Street, built in 1819 by a silversmith and clockmaker, is a refinement of the traditional architecture of 18th Century mid-European domestic architecture which was used in early Salem. It is now a third exhibit building of Old Salem, Inc., the restoration organization.

"Fourth House," 450 S. Main St., erected in 1767, is the oldest building still standing in Salem. It was the home of an early saddlemaker. The house was restored in 1940 by the Forsyth County Committee of Colonial Dames and is now rented.

Belo House, 455 S. Main Street, handsome antebellum mansion with Corinthian columns and elaborate iron grille, was erected by Edward Belo in 1849. Belo conducted a store on the main floor of the building and his dwelling was on the second story. The building was at one time used as an Inn. Now it belongs to the Moravian Church and is an apartment house for ladies.

Salem College and Academy, Salem Square, is one of the first Girls' Schools in the South and is oldest in continuous operation. Established by the Moravians as a day school in 1772, it became a boarding school in 1802. The college buildings, on a 58-acre campus, are designed in the characteristic mid-European domestic architecture, prevalent in Salem.

Salem Square Market-Firehouse, 1803, has been reconstructed on its original foundations. The square has been restored to early appearance with white clapboard fence.

Hagan House, 1816, 230 S. Liberty Street, was home of Francis Fries Hagan.

Christoph Vogler House, 1797, 708 S. Main Street, home of village gunsmith, was the first brick house in the village.

Anna Catharina House, behind John Vogler House, 1772, was the home of Anna Catharina Ernst, heroine of the historical novel, "Road to Salem"

Community Store, 1775, 626 S. Main Street, was trading center of the village and home of the storekeeper. It is now restored and open to the public with items for sale.

1 Instruct Grades K-12

Special Schools-Included in this category are facilities for instruction of the mentally retarded and physically handicapped, and a Montessori school.

Four colleges are located in the city: Salem College, one of the nation's oldest leading four-year colleges for women, founded in 1772; Winston-Salem State University, co-educational institution with an enrollment of 2,200 students, and Wake Forest University, a 145-year old, four-year college for men and women. The school provides post-graduate programs of law, medicine, and business administration, in addition to its undergraduate curriculum, for a total enrollment of 4,600 students. It moved to its new campus during the summer of 1956.

The North Carolina School of the Arts opened in September, 1965, on the campus of the former Gray High School. It provides instruction in dance, music and drama for 600 talented high school and college students from North Carolina and many other states.

City Government

Winston-Salem has the council-manager type of city government. The city is incorporated, operating at present upon a charter codified and revised in 1927, with amendments made since. The city is divided into eight wards, with one alderman being elected biennially from each ward, making the governing body of the city a board of aldermen of eight plus the mayor. The Board of Alderman appoints the city manager.

County Government

Five commissioners, elected for overlapping four-year terms, make up a board of commissioners who served as the governing body of Forsyth County.

The county is divided into 80 precincts. To be eligible to vote in county elections, you must be a resident of North Carolina for 30 days prior to the date of the election.

Recreational Facilities

Fifty-two parks and playgrounds have athletic fields, picnic areas and special amusement features. The largest park is Reynolds, one of the South's finest municipal recreational centers. The city has an average of more than ten acres of playground for each public school.

Numerous amateur and "semi-pro" baseball, basketball and softball teams have regular schedules of games. Ten eighteen-hole golf courses and one 36-hole course, and a mild climate, make golf a year-around sport. Ten swimming pools and seventeen motion-picture theatres are located in the city. The R. J. Reynolds Memorial Auditorium and the Bowman Gray Stadium are available for special events. The Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. provide recreational programs, and the City Recreation Department conducts extensive supervised activities.

Benton Convention Center, located in downtown Winston-Salem and within waking distance of major hotels, houses over 270 conventions and meetings each year.

The Memorial Coliseum seats 8,600 and brings many attractions to the city. The Coliseum accommodates ice sports, agricultural shows and conventions.

Winston-Salem is a gateway to both mountain and seashore resorts. Some of the lovliest Carolina beaches lie 225 to 250 miles east and south, while cool mountain retreats are about sixty miles west. The famed Blue Ridge Parkway, leading to Shenandoah National Park and Great Smoky Mountains National Park, is some sixty miles northwest.

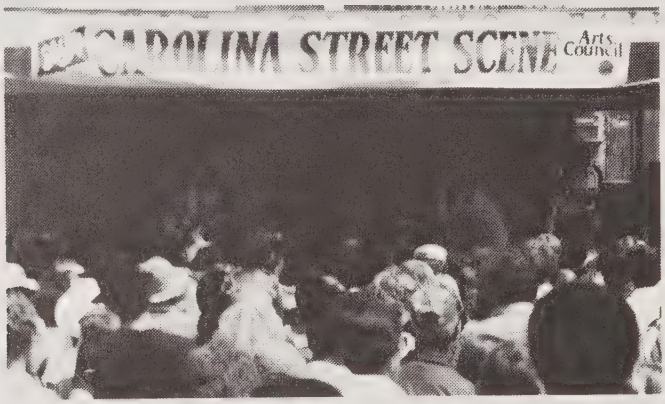
Cultural Opportunities

Winston-Salem has many cultural activities and organizations. The Colleges of the community provide numerous concerts and lectures throughout the year. The member organizations of the Arts Council provide series and individual programs and courses. These members are Arts and Crafts Association, American Guild of Organists, Associated Artists, Children's Theatre Board, Civic Music Association, Film Friends, Jaycees, Junior League, Junior Woman's Club, Singer's Guild, Chamber Of Music Society, Civic Ballet, Woman's Club, SPEBSQSA, Dance Forum, Gallery of Fine Arts, Little Theatre, Winston-Salem Symphony Association, which has a full-time paid conductor, and The Moravian Music Foundation.

Public Library of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County has over 309,000 volumes.

Hospitals and Medical Facilities

Three first-class hospitals, Forsyth Memorial, Medical Park and North Carolina Baptist, have a total of 1,609 beds. There are three convalescent homes in the city, the City-County Health Clinic, and the full-time City and County Health Department with splendid records in disease-prevention.



Carolina Street Scene brings thousands of people to downtown Winston-Salem each September.

Your new, improved City Directory is the most complete and comprehensive catalog ever published of the inhabitants, business concerns and institutions of your city. It is much more than just an alphabetical list of names and addresses.

Your City Directory Contains:

Consult The Classified Business Lists of This Directory for Your Quickest, Surest Answer!

We Serve More North Carolina Cities Than Any Other Airline.

Piedmont serves nineteen cities in North Carolina. More than any other major airline.

Which means, of course, that we can take you to all kinds of places the other airlines just fly over.

But that's only part of the story.

From those North Carolina cities, Piedmont can also fly you to cities all over the country. Cities like Boston, Philadelphia, Orlando, Houston, Dallas/Ft. Worth, Denver, Miami and Tampa.

A lot of those flights are nonstop. Including flights that, on most other airlines, would mean changing planes somewhere.

We not only save you time with more nonstops, we also save you money with Super Saver and weekend fares.

So call your travel agent. Or call Piedmont.
We don't just serve more North Carolina cities.
We also try to serve them better.

True, the business of banks is money. But it would be shortsighted of us not to remember the people and the hard work and the dreams that the money represents. At First Union, we remember. And taking care of money is just one of the ways we fulfill our commitment to our customers and our community.

Power of Advertising

THE CITY DIRECTORY is the power that generates information for the buyer that he may know who deals in the product he wishes to purchase. If your business is not classified properly, and a display advertisement arranged to describe your business, how can you expect the buyer to trade with you?

ADVERTISING is the foundation upon which successful businesses are built. You must apply this to your own particular business.

ADVERTISING is the power of an idea multiplied.

YOUR CITY DIRECTORY— AN INVESTMENT—A BUSINESS TOOL

Be certain that everyone in your organization is carefully instructed and thoroughly familiar with the information it contains and how to use it. To assist you, the publishers have included detailed instructions on the opening pages of each of the four Directories which should, in a general way, familiarize each user with its contents and applications.

Also, should you desire additional copies of these instructions, please write the publisher at the address in the front of your Directory.

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."
